River Raisin Watershed Council Request for Applications

Applications Due: April 29th, 2022

The River Raisin Watershed Council (RRWC) is requesting applications for the seventh annual Discover the Raisin Award Program. This year 5th, 6th, 7th, & 8th grade teachers of any subject, whose school districts are within the River Raisin watershed, are eligible to apply. Five successful applicants have the opportunity to be awarded $200 for classroom supplies or other expenses relevant to the proposed project.

Eligible teachers can submit a short application form and narrative due by April 29th, 2022 to be considered for the award. Winners will be announced in May 2022.

A few examples of projects that would qualify:

- A History class field trip to the River Raisin National Battlefield Park in Monroe, MI.
- An Art class assigned to create artwork inspired by a funded field trip in the watershed.
- An English class funded field trip in the watershed may be assigned to write a report.
- Purchasing of a water quality testing kit to analyze components of nearby bodies of water.

A committee, appointed by the RRWC Executive Committee, will choose the five winning entries based on ranking each answer provided in the application on a scale from 1-10. The purpose of each project should be to maximize students' understanding and exposure to some aspect of the River Raisin watershed.

All applicants, including those who do not win, may also request to receive a presentation by RRWC staff or committee members about the River Raisin watershed or a water related presentation. The RRWC believes there are relevant lessons to learn in and around the watershed that are pertinent to any curriculum requirements. Interested applicants, schools, and groups within the watershed may contact us to request a presentation at any time.

Applications can be sent to: riverraisin001@gmail.com
